RED CROSS ON THE RHINE

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 19.—The Third Red Cross Roll Call was most successful—where do you suppose?—on the German Rhine! Not among the Germans, it is true, but among the doughboys in the American Army of Occupation.

Dispatches from national headquarters state that Company A, Eighth Infantry, consisting of 250 men, enrolled one hundred per cent. on November 1, the day before the campaign opened, and that practically every other outfit plans to follow suit.

No such record as that made by the doughboys has been received from any other community.
